SECOND PART
TITLES THAT MAY BE AWARDED BY THE SENATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PANNONIA ON THE BASIS OF THE NHEACT AND THE RELEVANT GOVERNMENT DECREE

Honorary Doctor (Doctor Honoris Causa) and Honorary Professor (Professor Honoris Causa) titles

1. §

(1) The University confer the title of Honorary Doctor (Doctor Honoris Causa) on persons, both Hungarian and foreign, who deserve it, in accordance with the requirements of the Doctoral Regulations of the University, or the title of Honorary Professor (Professor Honoris Causa) on external professionals for their outstanding academic achievements widely recognised worldwide, or for their epoch-making work in higher education and in the public sphere of science.

(2) The recipient of the title receives a certificate in Latin and a medal.

(3) The medal is a 50 mm diameter, 5 mm thick, circular and made of precious metal, with the coat of arms of the University of Pannonia on one side, the inscription of the University of Pannonia, the name of the laureate, the inscription dr. honoris causa/prof. honoris causa and the year of the award on the other side.

(4) The title is conferred at a university ceremony (opening of the academic year, graduation ceremony, University Science Day celebrations) or, in exceptional cases, at any other ceremonial event.

(5) The title may only be awarded once to the same person.

Title of Professor Emeritus/Emerita

(1) The Senate may confer the title of Professor Emeritus/Emerita (hereinafter referred to as "Professor Emeritus") on a person who holds the title of a university or college professor and whose employment is terminated due to retirement (no further employment is initiated), and who
   a) is a full or corresponding member of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences or holds a doctor of science degree or is a doctor of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences, or
   b) is a recognised expert in his or her field of specialisation through his or her lectures, research findings, etc. in teaching or scientific work, or
   c) has made a significant contribution to the institution's reputation in Hungary and abroad through his or her teaching, research and public service activities; and
   d) prior to retirement, he or she was a university or college professor at the University of Pannonia.

(2) The conferral of the title of Professor Emeritus may be initiated by the head of the competent organisational unit, the Dean of the Faculty or the Rector, indicating the date of conferral, the duration of the validity of the title in the case of a proposal for a fixed-term award, and the exact duties of the person proposed for the title of Professor Emeritus.

(3) The Senate decides on the conferral of the title of Professor Emeritus by secret ballot on the basis of a written proposal of the organisational unit concerned, at the proposal of the Faculty Board, after consultation with the University's Doctoral and Habilitation Council and the Professors' Council, and determines the starting date and the duration of the validity of the title in the case of a proposal for a fixed-term award. The certificate is signed by the Rector of the University and presented at a ceremony.

(4) The holder of the title of Professor Emeritus is entitled, in agreement with the head of the educational unit, to

a) continue its teaching or research work and make comments and proposals in connection with it,
b) serve as a member of university and faculty committees,
c) use the University's and faculty infrastructure in connection with his or her work.

(5) The holder of the title of Professor Emeritus is obliged to

a) participate in bachelor's, specialised further educational or doctoral study programmes,
b) participate in the scientific (research) work of the faculty,
c) perform the duties entrusted to him or her with due regard for the interests of the University.

(6) A Professor Emeritus is liable to pay compensation for any damage caused by his or her negligent or wilful breach of his or her duties under this title. The determination of liability for damages and other rules relating to compensation shall be governed by the relevant chapter of this regulation.

(7) The title of Professor Emeritus may be withdrawn if

a) the holder of the title has been prohibited by a final decision of a court from exercising the profession or has been sentenced to imprisonment to be executed, with no further appeal being possible, for a wilful criminal offence.

(8) In the case of Professor Emeritus titles previously conferred for a fixed term, the Dean of the Faculty concerned may initiate the modification/award of the title for an indefinite term or its extension for a fixed term before the expiry of the title, after having consulted the Faculty Board. On the basis of the proposal and the decision of the Faculty Board, the Senate decides on the modification/award of the title for an indefinite period or on its extension for a fixed term. In the case of a modification to an indefinite term or an extension for a fixed-term, it is not necessary to seek the opinion of the Professors' Council and the University's Doctoral and Habilitation Council again.

(9) Upon the decision of the Senate, the certificate must be presented with the signature of the Rector of the University on it.

(10) A person who re-establishes an employment relationship with the University of Pannonia after retirement and after the conferral of the title is temporarily not entitled to use the title of Professor Emeritus (without the title being revoked).
